The Answer to Life's Frustrations

The Sacred Heart sent you this cross to enable you to acquire other merits and because he wants you to be afflicted like all his other chosen souls. Courage, then, and trust in the Lord who permits everything for our good, even the trials and crosses themselves, and assists us and gives us the strength we need to be able to attain an abundance of merit for paradise.

Yes, our only consolation amid so many misfortunes of life is the thought of an eternal reward above, a reward that will be as great as the intensity of the suffering.

Love your duty; fulfill it joyfully, don't let yourself be overcome by difficulties, failure, monotony, or the length of your work; think that you have the mission of making God loved and of loving him yourself.

Don't worry if sacrifice seems hard to you sometimes; no, what God permits is never too much; and the soul who is generous and who loves perfection must never say "enough." Be generous with Jesus. Never refuse him anything he asks of you, even if it costs your very life.

I bless you and I enclose all of you in the wound of the Sacred Side of Jesus. Warm yourselves in that furnace of pure, holy, and divine love that it may make you holy.

BLESSED CLELIA MERLONI

Blessed Clelia Merloni († 1930) founded the Congregation of the Apostles of the Sacred Heart of Jesus in 1894. Today they share the love of the Heart of Jesus on four continents. / From Spiritual Anthology: Elements of the Spirituality of Mother Clelia Merloni, Sr. M. Eucharistic Miracles

Auxiliary Bishop Andrew Conzens, chairman of the U.S. Conference of Catholic Bishops' Committee on Evangelization and Catechesis detailed an initiative to launch a nationwide three year Eucharistic revival program beginning in 2022. He stated, "the initiative aims to renew the Church by enkindling a living relationship with the Lord Jesus Christ in the holy Eucharist." Initial discussions of this was prompted by a 2019 Pew research showing that 69% of professed Catholics do not believe in transubstantiation, but rather believe the bread and wine used in Communion are merely symbols of the Body and Blood of Christ. Only 31% believed that the bread and wine become the Body and Blood of Jesus Christ. Bishop Conzens went on to say, "right now, the Church in the United States needs the healing and unity that can flow from rekindling our love for the Eucharist."

Material now available in the back of the church.

The Grand Annual Collection is off to a great start! This is an ongoing collection, not simply a one-time collection taken up at the weekend Masses. The purpose of the collection is to begin the process of funding the larger repair and maintenance projects on the various parish buildings, both current and future. The first priority will be structural issues and repairs of St. Mary Church. Additional envelopes are now available for all in the church. Thank you for your generosity!

New Hampshire Catholic Appeal:

We are grateful to all parishioners who have given to the New Hampshire Catholic Appeal. As of today, our parishioners have raised $7,955.00 toward our goal of $28,422.00. 100% of the funds raised above this Appeal goal are returned to our parish this year. If you have not made your gift yet, please bring your gift envelope to Mass next weekend or make your gift online at www.catholicnh.org/nhca. Remember that the Appeal replaces several diocesan 2nd collections throughout the year. Extra gift envelopes are available in the pews. We need the support of all of our parish families to reach our parish goal. Thank you for your support of these important needs and ministries of the Church.

Please make all checks payable to New Hampshire Catholic Appeal.

Congratulations to Michael and Alyssa Gurney who were married in St. Mary Church on Friday, July 15th! May God bless them as they begin their new chapter in life!
